It's great for beginners, and fun too for those of us with more experience gaming. Comes with six premade characters, and blank character sheets to generate others. Includes a set of black dice with white numbers, so they look good and are easy to read. Tons of cardboard pawns included too, and helpful cards listing action options during combat.

Tabletop Game Beginner- where to start? : starfinder_rpg

r/starfinder_rpg: The Unofficial Starfinder Subreddit. I'm looking to build a Vanguard for the first time for a PbP table. So far it looks like the table is leaning heavy on the ranged options, with maybe two characters being able to opt into melee range if they feel the need.

StarFinder for Beginners: Amazon.co.uk: Maggie Aderin ...

Bottom line: the Starfinder Beginner Box is an excellent introduction to Starfinder. If you've been holding out on Starfinder for whatever reason (the new AC nonsense, the new character creation weirdness), you're out of excuses. Pick this up and feel that rush of falling in love with a new system all over again.
