Stick: A Novel by Andrew Smith, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

I am a huge fan of Andrew Smith's writing, and this book did not disappoint me. Stick and his brother live in a situation that seems normal to them because they do not know anything different. However, a series of events provide both of them with a chance to see life differently.

Andrew A. Smith - Wikipedia

STICK is about a boy who wants something so bad, more than anything in the universe. So, this book? Was written in this cool little way. Because Stick is missing one ear, he hears things different. Words travel slower. And Andrew Smith shows the reader this on the page, through funky formatting. I wouldn't call it verse or prose, it's just. different.
