Background. During World War II, Franklin D. Roosevelt had assumed that China, under Chiang Kai-shek's leadership, would become a great power after the war, along with the U.S., the United Kingdom, and the Soviet Union. John Paton Davies Jr., was among the "China Hands" who were blamed for the loss of China. However, while they predicted a Communist victory they did not advocate one.

Triumph Tim says: December 26, 2019 10:09 am. As a 20+ year resident of Columbus, IN, I too thought the Milton Reeves creation was long lost to time. But a couple years ago, someone showed me a recent Republic article (our local newspaper) claiming it still exists and is undergoing a lengthy restoration in Kentucky after being found in Illinois in 1999.

Paradise Lost. Book 1

Video games and old movies give us the impression that the whole world is filled with treasure chests, tombs full of bling, and random pockets of riches here and there just waiting to be picked up, but that's ridiculous -- only some parts of the world are like that. That's right -- lost treasures do exist. And plenty of them.
