The story of Perseus and the Dragon of Posdeidon tells of a vain queen who almost sacrificed her daughter to the dragon, had it not been for Perseus. Dragons appear most in fairy tales and myths. In most cases the dragon is the keeper of some treasure, either gold and precious jewels or a maiden in despair. A knight in these stories must come to rescue the girl, or to retrieve the riches.

The greatest stories about dragons? I don't think so. Two of these stories do not even have dragons in them. Color me crazy but shouldn't a dragon story have a DRAGON in it? The majority of the stories are "humorous fantasy" and lets you better appreciate the late great Sir Terry Pratchett (who ...

Stories Of Dragons Con Cd

The first chapter is about dragons in general, I liked the story/chapter about the man who outsmarted the dragons best, it is really clever, there is a story about a giant worm that a village dragon defeats (my least favorite story) and a story about a man who is stuck two dragons in their lair all winter as the hibernate, only an OK story in my opinion.
