Robin, that's not what I meant... I went to a Presbyterian school for most of my life, and in my last year we studied The Merchant of Venice, one of Shakespeare's gayest plays. Our teacher showed us a film which had two men (Antonio and Bassanio) kissing, which surprised a lot of the class, but afterwards she refused to talk...

"I didn't mean it like that. That's not how I meant to come across ..."
Clear communication and apologizing to others when appropriate is good, but there's something else that is even more important. In 1 John 1:5-7, it says, "God is light and in Him is no darkness at all. ... But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.
