The central focus is national identity, but more general subjects are also considered.

History of the Balkans - Wikipedia

KIRKUS REVIEW. A skillful navigation of the stormy seas of Balkan history. In this brief but significant account, Mazower (Dark Continent, 1998) dispels a number of common misconceptions about one of the most misunderstood regions (and peoples) in the world. He maintains that violence is no more endemic to the Balkans than any other part of Europe,...
