The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas is a 2006 Holocaust novel by Irish novelist John Boyne. Much like the process he undertakes when writing most of his novels, Boyne has said that he wrote the entire first draft of The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas in two and a half days, without sleeping much, [1] but also that he was quite a serious student of the Holocaust for years before the idea for the novel even came to him. [2]

The Boy in the Striped Pajamas Ending

The Boy in the Striped Pajamas is an unusual story, one of the most difficult and disturbing a teen will ever read. It is the story of an event seared into the fabric of history. It is a fable told through the voice of a child, but it is not for children, and this is not just any child.
