This was a special gift for my 7 and 5 year old children on Christmas Eve. It is such a lovely tale about the tree, I don't want to spoil it so won't say too much. We did wonder what happened to the little boy though - we looked at the illustrations to see if we could find any answers in the last pages but had no luck.

A small, crooked fir tree becomes a Christmas tree for a homeless boy and then grows into a huge and healthy tree in a park. The scraggly tree begins life as a crooked seedling on a Christmas tree farm. It is mistakenly sent to a city along with larger trees and given away on Christmas Eve to a boy who is living under a railway bridge.
