I spent one hour preparing for the test. That is right, one hour. I reviewed the Compliance 101 book from SCCE ($60 for a 100 page paperback book) and the large binder The Complete Compliance and Ethics Manual ($315). I whipped through both skimming sections in one hour. For the price tag - very disappointed. The Compliance 101 book is enough.

CCEM The Complete Compliance and Ethics Manual

The compliance and ethics profession continues to evolve and adapt to the times. The foundation of what comprises a compliance and ethics program changes very little and the pace of this change is slow. But much of what impacts the daily functioning of a program, based on emerging practices and trends, guidance from regulators, actions from the enforcement community, and other forces change ...
