The Fourteenth Letter Review

The Fourteenth Letter was the 'perfect new', intrigue, mystery, class system, a smattering of love (nothing mushy) and a large helping of murder and sacrifice. The blurb will tell you what you need to know, I will not spoil it, give this book a go. Read more. One person found this helpful.

The Fourteenth Letter The Page

The Fourteenth Letter opens with a grisly murder. What follows is an historical mystery with a classical twist, blending old world British Gothic with new world American ingenuity. It was a book about madness, privilege and eugenics, and while it didn ' t keep me guessing thr No one was more surprised by my enjoyment of Claire Evans ' The Fourteenth Letter than me.
