The Great Cat Poems About

If humans were immortal, like I suspect cats are, today would be the birthday of Christopher Smart, an English poet who was both infamous and influential in his day (1722-1771) but is now mostly known for his long religious poem Jubilate Agno, and in particular for one section from Jubilate Agno, an in-depth, ecstatic, truly ludicrous and wonderful consideration of his cat, whose name is Jeoffry.

Rumpus Cat - Wikipedia

In the late 1980s I saw a lovely piece of calligraphy in a craft show. It was a poem about the death of a cat and, as far as I can remember it, it talked about the things that the cat had done, eg climbing trees. It was about a cat at the end of its life and I think it was just about to be taken to the vet for the last time.
