THE HYPNOTIST'S LOVE STORY by Liane Moriarty | Kirkus Reviews

This isn't my favorite literary device, but it works very well. This story is an exploration of different kinds of love: romantic love, love between a parent and a child, obsessive, toxic love, love between friends, and self-love and its inherent delusions. It was my second Liane Moriarty book and my favorite so far.

The Hypnotist's Love Story Audiobook by Liane Moriarty

A Hypnotist's was finally settled with a man whom she met online. Discovering that his man has a STALKER whom was his ex. She felt interested in meeting her by not knowing that they already met. The story is well made and I really love the way how the author brings you to a trance into falling deep into gripping the book.

?The Hypnotist's Love Story on Apple Books

It's truly hard to describe The Hypnotist's Love Story because I don't feel that it was a love story. It was something entirely different. The premise of the story is that Ellen, a professional hypnotherapist, meets Patrick. Patrick is a widower with a young son. He's charming and Ellen enjoys his company.
