The Inner Courtyard is a collection of short stories by women, about women, hailing from all corners of India and Pakistan - Assam to Kerala, Pakistan to Bengal. Many of the stories are powerful on their own, but most have some element that reflect on the position of women in society.

The Subaltern Speaks: Short Stories by Indian Women Writers

The Inner Courtyard is a space one can still find in a few homes across India, an area beyond which women will not go unescorted by men. Geographically, our houses may be different now; we live in cities or even in small flats and cramped places, but these women's spaces get translated even into modern architecture.
