This is the story of a mole who, when he sticks his head up out of the ground one day, is poo'd on and he sets out to discover who did it. It never says "something did a poo on him", instead it says (in brackets): "It looked a little like a sausage, and the worst thing was that it landed right on his head." The mole, being short-sighted, can't see who did it, so he asks all the animals around ...
