THE MOMENT OF EVERYTHING is a funny, romantic novel about a young woman finding her calling while saving a used bookstore.

Shelly King, author of The Moment of Everything

The latter is the experience I had with The Moment of Everything's heroine, Maggie. The unemployed Maggie starts out using the Dragonfly used bookstore as refuge from the pile of job applications she can't make herself fill out. The more time she spends there, the more she is drawn into the place's weird little world.

review 2: The best I can say for The Moment of Everything is that it's a novel without major flaws, but utterly unmoving and quickly forgettable. I finished it just a couple of days ago and am struggling to remember anything about it. The characters and plot were thin, language unremarkable. ... Other books by Shelly King.
