has tended to be regarded with a reverence which, for many, never warmed into affection. A reputation as a father-figure among improvisers has been bequeathed to those who never heard him unfold him impromptu canvasses. Recordings of Dupre playing his own music somehow didn't come up to the quality of the legend.

Hello Timothy, You sure picked some blockbusters. The Symphonie Passion is one heck of a piece. There is a great recording of this called 'The Wanamaker Legacy' Peter Richard Conte organist (Gothic 49240). Its the organ where Dupre got his inspiration for the Passion. Most of it is pretty straight forward.*
