While the esteemed "City Lights Books" classifies "The Prone Gunman" as "noir" fiction, it's more properly plated in the adventure procedural category. That vaguely malodorous formula implies uniformity, conformity, plenty of violence, occasional quick sex, stereotypical characters and colorful lingo and that's what "The Prone Gunman" delivers.

The Prone Gunman City Lights

The Prone Gunman. This is the darkest of dark noirs, in the tradition of Jim Thompson, and the last novel Manchette would publish before his early death. Every word Manchette wrote is worth your time, much as those of one of his predecessors in French minimalism, Georges Bernanos, is. —Recommended by Jeff, City Lights Books
