modernization, development

The aftermath of the Revolutionary War established a pattern that would continue throughout American history: after implying that working-class people stood to gain a lot from military victory, the elites proceeded to claim most of the “spoils of war” for themselves, doling out only small rewards for the less powerful.
