Athol Fugard is South Africa's most well-known playwright, perhaps best known for "Master Harold ... and the Boys.". I'd never read anything by him when I found "The Road to Mecca" last weekend at a library book sale for fifty cents. And after reading this, I'm even more eager to read more by him than I was before.

The Road to Mecca (play) - Wikipedia

In the play "The Road to Mecca" Athol Fugard explores the question: Should we leave our Mecca, our spiritual fountainhead, when we can no longer take care of ourselves? The conflict between the three strong willed characters Helen, Elsa and Pastor Marius explores the question in the light of different religions, cultures, genders, ages and environments.
