George wished he wasn't the scruffiest giant in town. So when he sees a new shop selling giant-sized clothes, he decides it's time for a new look: smart trousers, smart shirt, stripy tie, shiny shoes. Now he's the smartest giant in town . . . until he bumps into some animals who desperately need his help - and his clothes!

'Smartest' and 'scruffiest' are both examples of a superlative. Can you think of any more? Could you make a collection of them and use them in your own writing? Choose a page in the book and sort the different words. Which ones are nouns, adjectives, verbs or adverbs? Imagine a town where giants live alongside people and animals.
