Uneven is a well written story, and so many of these aren't. It's also really physically violent, with lots of whipping and bruising and real pain (he kept tasting blood, and his face was battered the next day) These 2 are not playing nice, and quite a bit of it made me wince.

May 12, Nina anzh it really liked it Shelves: I ' ll admit it, the way Rase ' s sexuality is described is what probably will make me read this book again. I ' m not feel the reviewing vibes but I really want to get this out of mind I know, a fabulous attitude.

Book Review: Uneven by Anah Crow | Love Bytes Reviews
Anah Crow isn't cut from that cloth, and Uneven is not a book for people who want to be lightly titillated. It's raw, bare, brutal - gut wrenching. It's made me cry both times I read it, and hold my breath through much of it.
