Book Review: Waiting for Doggo « neverimitate

Waiting for Doggo. Dan – a 30-year-old Londoner who works in advertising – is forced to take ownership of Doggo after his girlfriend walks out on him. He is far from fond of the animal, but the dogs' home won't take Doggo back without neutering him. Dan feels he can't do that to the mongrel, so ends up keeping him – the dog eventually returning...
