LORD BYRON poem WHEN WE TWO
ARE PARTED original English
text

When We Two Parted by Lord Byron When we two parted In silence and tears, Half broken-hearted, To sever for years, Pale grew thy cheek
and cold, Colder thy kiss;
Truly that hour foretold Sorrow to this. The dew of the morning Sank chill on my brow— It felt like the warning Of what I feel now.
Thy vows are all broken, And l'ght 's thy fame.

Byron: Analysis ...

'When We Two Parted' is one of the anthology favourites by a poet better known for his life than for his work. Although the poetry of Lord Byron (1788-1824) is still read and studied, how many people have read Don Juan from start to finish? It's shorter poems, like the beautiful lyric 'When We Two Parted' that keep Byron's work popular.

LANGUAGE. Collective first person plural pronoun – ‘we’ – the opening line contains the phrase ‘we two parted’, but it is the only time that Byron uses this plural pronoun to refer to the speaker and addressee together. Motifs – ‘silence and tears’ – these images are repeated at the beginning and end of the poem to create a kind of cyclical structure that summarises the ...
