I decided to write this summary of Michael Shermer's book, Why People Believe Weird Things partly for myself to review what I'd read (it took me a month of off and on reading to get through it), and to hit some of the highlights for my wife who told me that she didn't think she'd be able to get all the way through the book based on my description of it.

Why People Believe Weird Things Quotes by Michael Shermer

There was too much debunking of the deniers and creationists and not enough analysis of why people believe such things. I suppose the reasons why people believe nonsense is really limited to a few reasons, such as hope, fear, laziness, etc., that are applicable to a variety of situations. There's not a whole lot more that can be said about this.
