The upper Yukon River basin is one of the wildest, most beautiful, and coldest places on earth. The indigenous Han Indians, whose homeland straddles the U.S.-Canadian border, traveled this country as hunters and gatherers and found a way to survive in it that exemplifies their innovation and tenacity. For Craig Mishler and Bill Simeone, the Han are not only an ethnic and linguistic group but a ...

Illegal immigration incurs tremendous economic, social, and humanitarian costs for Europe and the Maghreb countries. Previous literature on illegal immigration focuses on "coping" (border security, repatriation, and rescue) and "resolving" (social integration of immigrants). This thesis attempts to direct the European policymakers' attention to "preventing" policy model.
