McDougal Littell World Geography (Texas Edition) An important part of economic geography is understanding which resources a nation possesses. Natural resources are materials or in the earth--such as trees, fish, or coal--that have economic value. Materials from the earth become resources only when the society has the technology...

Glencoe World Geography Texas Edition: Richard G. Boehm ...
This is one of two possible texts that can be used in Texas to teach world geography. It comes in tenth in a field of two. The book is poorly arranged and is rife with editorial and political comment disguised as information. The relationship and importance of geography to current real world events is passed over perfunctorily.
