Zane Dupree never knew his father who died on the job as a mailman. He never even knew he had any family until his great-grandmother, Miss Trissy of New Orleans, is found. Zane's mother sends him to New Orleans to visit in late August of 2005, right before Hurricane Katrina hits. Zane is just getting to know about his father, and uncle, when they are evacuated.

Zane And The Hurricane

Zane and the Hurricane is a gut wrenching story of survival by a boy and his dog with the aide of an old musician and a scrawny joke telling girl. I'm glad this book is on the Missouri Mark Twain nominee list for 2016-17 for 4th through 6th grade readers. Once you start reading this book, it will be hard to put down. Clearly can be a one day read.
